Pray for those who have suffered great loss, tragedy and devastation from the recent hurricanes and the resulting flooding and damage to surroundings. Pray that in the midst of such great sorrow and loss, that they will find comfort in Jesus and the peace that only He can offer. May miracles be found in the midst of such tragedy, and may God's love shine through His people in moments like these. Pray that resources will be given generously and lovingly where needed, that people will not be left without. Through it all, may God be seen as in control and sovereign over all.
