I. The Lord God of Creation

II. God’s Speaking in Creation

III. Awareness and Listening to God’s Speaking

I. The Lord God of Creation

What does Psalm 19:1 tell us about the heavens and the skies?

Why is the message of Psalm 19:1 not affirmed by the world that we live in?

What natural wonder in the past has pointed you to God as the Creator?

What is the message about creation found in Genesis 1:1 and Isaiah 40:28 and Exodus 20:11 and Psalm 104:24?

How does God’s creating go beyond man’s creating? Note Hebrews 11:3.

II. God’s Speaking in Creation

What are the active “speaking” words that are used in Psalm 19:1-2?

How does Psalm 19:3 tell us that this speaking is different than what we do?

Though there is no speech or words or sounds, what does Psalm 19:4 tell us?

What mistake is being made when people worship the sun and moon and stars?

Where were you when God spoke to you through His creation? Why does this seem to impact us so deeply?

What is the great tragedy for unbelieving scientists and environmentalists and naturalists as they study God’s creation? What do they miss?

III. Awareness and Listening to God’s Speaking

What does Psalm 24:1 tell us about this world?

If the world belongs to God and God speaks through His creation, what can we be assured of as we walk through life?

What gets in the way of hearing God’s voice and seeing God’s working?

Hearing God’s Voice and Seeing God’s Working

1. Acknowledge God as the Creator.

Why is it so important to have God in His place and us in our place?

2. Start each day with Prayer.

Why do we need to ask God to give us an awareness of Him?

3. Walk with a Holy Expectation.

How does it change our perspective when we affirm that God is already working?

4. Listen to What God is Saying.

Why do we need to take time to be quiet?

5. Worship God.

Why do we worship God?
